

A testimonial for Evolve and Grow, May 2014

I am new to the world of running my own business. Having worked in the corporate world for the last 20 years, I needed someone to help me make good decisions at the start of my journey. The purpose of this testimonial is to say that Alison is most definitely that person.

Since I started my business, essentially I was a busy fool. What Alison has done is help me understand the process I follow within my company so that I can now focus on the task in hand, without trying to do everything at once. This has enabled me to spend more time on key aspects of my company, such as generating new sales and looking at my costs.

Additionally, Alison has helped me define and extend my product range, so now I have a suitable product available for the different types of business I meet.

In the short period of time that we have worked together, I have already recouped my investment and I look forward to a long term relationship with Evolve and Grow.

On top of all this, Alison is a lovely lady who I really enjoy spending time with. When you are opening your soul to someone, it is important that you trust them for it to be effective. As soon as I met Alison, I knew that she would make a difference to my businesses, and I was not wrong.

Yours sincerely,

Nathan Kelsey
